

CONFLICT: con.flict (noun) (kon flikt)

Conflict is a natural part of life and we all handle conflict in different ways. Managing conflict in a school setting can be challenging. Apollo High School cares about teaching our students manageable and constructive ways to handle conflict in their daily lives.

INTRODUCING...

Apollo High School's 9th Grade Conflict Resolution Campaign

STOP.. THINK.. CHOOSE!

HELPING STUDENTS MANAGE CONFLICT

In partnership with St. Cloud State University's Institute for Alternative Dispute Resolution

For more information contact: Ms. Shawn Gombos-Apollo Administrator

(320) 253-1600 #2005

Strategies to Use-

STOP

GOT DANGER? GET OUT!

Don't Act..... Don't Think.....Just Feel

Step Back

You Are Here!

THINK

GOT DANGER? GET OUT!

What am I Hearing? What am I Seeing?

What is this REALLY about?

What is my truth?

CHOOSE

GOT DANGER? GET OUT!

Can I Handle This wisely?

YES: Be CONSTRUCTIVE: negotiate, compromise

NO: Be CONSTRUCTIVE: walk away, seek help

HELPING STUDENTS MANAGE CONFLICT

In partnership with St. Cloud State University's Institute for Alternative Dispute Resolution

For more information contact: Ms. Shawn Gombos-Apollo Administrator- (320) 253-1600 #2005