

Our Commitment to Teaching and Learning at Oak Hill:

A Community where students and adults are learners and believe that all can learn and succeed!

Learning Content ~ Mindful Lesson Planning

- Intentionally plan opportunities for student engagement and collaboration with a focus of learning from one another (think-pair-share, turn & talk)
- Teachers' lessons are standards-based
- Intentionally plan differentiated instruction that meet the needs of students
- Maximize learning time designed in schedules and daily plans

Learning Process ~ Powerful Instruction

- Teachers communicate student-friendly learning target/goal and facilitate interaction with throughout the lesson
- All students:
 - receive core instruction in their classroom
 - interact with the learning target/goal
 - are actively engaged in learning
 - participate in differentiated learning activities
 - are given opportunities to have rich dialogue and respond to higher level questions

Learning Impact ~ Ongoing Analysis

- Collaborative analysis and reflection of data will drive instructional decisions
- Timely and consistent feedback will be provided to students and families
- Learning will be celebrated

Learning Context ~ Creating a Conscious Community

Utilizing a Growth Mindset:

- Build trusting relationships by honoring and valuing multiple perspectives through discussion, dialogue, and collaboration
- Continue to engage in ongoing courageous conversations regarding race and culture and how it impacts learners, instructional design, and delivery
- Integrate social-emotional learning and teach vital life skills
- Celebrate, support, and seek joy with one another
