Does this decision advance serving highly affected students?
"Highly affected students" means individuals experiencing additional burdens/barriers.

Does this decision need additional perspectives before finalizing?

Does this decision improve access for students/families?

Does this decision encourage collaboration and partnership?

What are the unintended consequences of this decision? AND what considerations need to be made to mitigate these consequences?